FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IRVINE, CA (August 09, 2013) Signature Control Systems (Signature) is pleased to announce the appointment of IPS & Distribution (IPS) as the South African distributor of our landscape irrigation products. Signature is committed to re-entering the South African market and we believe we have a strong and committed partner to achieve our goals in this region.

Signature (having acquired the Nelson range of turf products in 2008) is an industry leader in rotors, valves, intelligent irrigation control equipment and site management software. Our sales staff works with a wide array of irrigation professionals, including distributors, designers, architects and contractors.

We are here to assist in all aspects of irrigation applications to maximize the unique aspects of Signature products. We provide support on sales, specifications and ongoing central control maintenance to ensure our customers' complete satisfaction.

IPS has a team of dedicated professionals with a collective 195 years of experience in the irrigation industry. They are available to assist Signature's customers with any aspect of specification, application or installation questions may have. IPS are also able to supply all ancillary products to complete Signature's customers irrigation needs.

IPS are based in Centurion and Cape Town and have sub dealers in many other regions of SA.
