FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Signature Control Systems Appoints Director, Expands International Presence with European Office
Paris-based office to handle Europe, Middle East and Africa

IRVINE, CA (December 6, 2005) - Signature Control Systems, one of the leading manufacturers of irrigation control equipment and turf maintenance products, announced today that Michel Arbadji has been hired as the company's Director of Operations for Europe, Middle East and Africa.

In his role, Arbadji will focus on developing Signature's European and Middle East business and will report directly to Signature President and CEO, Brian J. Smith. Arbadji will operate out of Signature's newly-opened office in Paris, France.

"We have always viewed the international market as an important element in our company's strategy and vision. The success our products have already attained internationally has truly been remarkable and now is the right time for our company to take this step. Our record in Europe has been a good one and with Michel on our team, will further strengthen our European business," said Smith.

"The European market is a large and important market and Signature's technologically advanced products provide a superior alternative whilst providing real benefits for its users." Arbadji said.
